Holiday Happenings at WCL!

Thursday, December 1st @ 4pm:

Mindful Making

Join us for an afternoon of quiet crafting! Decorate a mug with your own unique design for a gift, or make a treat for yourself! Call (503) 861-8156 to sign up.

Friday, December 9th & Saturday, December 10th:

WCL Winter Wonderland

Stop by the library for a cozy celebration as the year winds to a close. Have a present that you need to wrap in secret for the perfect surprise? Need something warm to drink and a pause from the hustle and bustle of the holiday season?

Visit our newly renovated meeting space for an on-screen fireplace, warm drinks, wrapping station, and holiday crafts.

Thursday, December 29th @ 4:00pm

Pajama Day & Family Movie Night - Frozen

When the newly crowned Queen Elsa accidentally uses her power to turn things into ice to curse her home in infinite winter, her sister Anna teams up with a mountain man, his playful reindeer, and a snowman to change the weather condition.

Join us for pajama day all day at the library, then stay for our family movie showing of Frozen. Singing along is encouraged, popcorn will be provided!

Please join us in saying thank you to our library director Kelly for everything she's done for our community and library. We're all wishing her the very best on the next step of her journey!

Thank you, Kelly!
