October's Author: Tawnya Torres

Tawnya Torres lives in the Pacific Northwest near the ocean. The endless rain and evergreen forests influence the dark romantic mood of her stories. If she's not at her desk surrounded by angel wing begonias you can find her by the beach or on a hike with her beloved little black dog. Torres is the author of two novels "A Silent Discovery," (a romantic fantasy that released in October 2022) and "Heart of the Machine," (a science fiction romance released in 2023). Both books are available in the Warrenton Community Library catalog.
